M'DONALD FILES FIVE MORE DIVORCE SUITS

mitted the indiscretion, Florenak alleges.

Mrs. Myrtle Nelson wished separation from H. L. Nelson, and restoration of her maiden name, Myrtle King. because, she alieged she had been forced to pay her own board during the major portion of their married life, since their wedding, Oct. 26, 1914.

Mattle Clay alleged that Carranth Clay had been guilty of cruet and inhuman treatment toward her, and Allie Lynn Waller made a similar allegation against Will Waller, in her bill for divorce. CLAIMS DAMAGES FOR A funeral procession is about the last place anyone, even a lawyer, would expect to have an automobile accident caused by reckless driving to kappen. But, if allegations set out in a bill for $3,500 damages filed Friday in circuit court are true, it can occur.

Mary Jones sued Walker & Oates, negro undertakers, and Albert Kapheer, for $10,000, alleging that she was injured while a passenger in an automobile provided by the undertakers. She was in a funeral procession at the time, she alleged. On Jackson avenue, near Manassas street, the car in which she was riding was struck by another auto going, she alleges, at a dangerous rate of speed. She alleged the young son of W. M. Walker, a "reckless boy of tender years." was driving her car. Col. W. L. Terry filed as attorney for Mary.

were married.

Mrs. Dean Underwod sued P. C.
Underwood for divorce, because, she alleged, he often had left her to shift
for herself since their marriage, March.
1887; that he returned home intoxicated after one of these absences, and hurned her clothes and that he finally had abandoned her.

Neal Is Indicted On Murder Charge

Jimmy Neal, alias Jack, negro, was indicted Friday for murder in the first degree, it being charged that he murdered James Bell last Saturday night. J. W. (Sonny) Campbell, Mrs. Campbell, Bennie Bryant and Ethel Graves were indicted for violating the liquor aw. Other minor indictments were induded in eight true bills returned. Three were ignored.

HUSBAND LEFT HER ALONE, WIFE CHARGES

Alleging that she had been abandoned by her husband, that on one occasion when she was ill, she was left entirely alone for two days, Edith M. Hays filed suit for divorce from Frank F. Hays, in the chancery court Friday. Edging-ton & Edgington filed the bill. The couple were married Sept. 17, 1912, in Knoxville, Tenn.

CHARRIAYGES I

POLLYANNA Is Coming!

Guaranteed-17,500 Steps, and More

This shoe's sole will wear like iron. It was tanned by the makers-oak-tanned by the slow, old-fashioned process that toughens a sole without taking the life out of it. It was rolled and rounded to make it flexible and fit for just this heft of shoe. The only leather that will outwear it is in this shoe's own upper. It's a Walk-Over. That's saying in one word more than we've already said.
